ABOUT ME

My name is Zerihun Ebbabbu and I am a multi-disciplinary UI/UX designer, graphics designer and web developer. I tried to understand the user's problem to bring a better experience for the users. I try to share experiences with other UI/UX designers about how they are going to solve the problems with good professional communication. I have more than two years of experience with design using different designing tools like Adobe families and Figma online platform. This makes me have a good experience in how to solve problems related to my profession.
